Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – TAMMS

420 Front Street, Tamms, Illinois

Greg Masterson, age 67 of Olive Branch, passed away on Tuesday, May 26, 2026 at his home.

He was born on March 20, 1959 to Donald E. Masterson and Lucille (Carner) Masterson in Collinsville, Illinois.

He was a retired Iron Worker. He was owner /operator of Big Cypress Hunting Club. He was a talented sportsman and was the Illinois State Duck Calling Champion. He made duck and goose calls and sent several goose calls to the World Nationals. Greg loved the outdoors and spent much time golfing, hunting, and fishing. He primarily loved duck and goose hunting. Greg was a member of the Pulaski-Alexander Sportsman Club, and the Egyptian Country Club.

Survivors include his brothers, Scott Masterson and Kevin Masterson; niece, Mallorie Masterson; nephew, Cecil Masterson; great-niece, Renlie Ladson; and great-nephew, Ryker Ladson; along with many friends; and his dog Leighla, who was by his side until Greg passed.

Greg would have wanted Tia Jordan to know how much she was appreciated throughout his journey; she meant a lot to him as well as all the other closet friends he had to help him.

Along with his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Rick Masterson; and grandparents, Ernest "Ike" and Estella Masterson and Cecil and Della Carner.

The family will host a Celebration of Life at a later date.

Inurnment at Olive Branch Cemetery will be held at a later date.

The cremation of Greg Masterson will be personally handled by the staff of Crain Funeral Home.

Crain Funeral Home in Tamms is in charge of arrangements.
