IN MEMORY OF:

Greg Webb

Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – ULLIN

420 Ullin Avenue, Ullin, Illinois

Greg Webb, age 65, of Ullin, passed away on Friday, December 27, 2024 at his home.

He was born July 1, 1959 to Ronald and Sue (Isom) Webb in Cairo, Illinois. He married the love of his life, Cindy Webb and she survives.

Greg loved to farm as well as fishing, and hunting of all kinds. He also loved riding side by sides. He was a member of the National Rifle Association, Farm Bureau, National Wildlife Turkey Federation, and Whitetails Unlimited.

Other survivors include his daughter, Katelan Webb; two sisters, Sheila (Jerry) Hase and Sondra (Brian) Halmaghi; as well as many other friends and family.

Along with his parents, he is preceded in death by his grandfather, Henry

Alexander Webb.

Graveside Service will be held Monday, December 30, 2024 at 11:00 AM at St. John's Cemetery in Dongola with Brent Miller officiating.

A visitation will follow the graveside service and everyone is asked to dress casual.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests with gratitude that memorial donations be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Crain Funeral Home in Ullin is in charge of Arrangements.

“ We were sadden to hear the news of Greg's passing. He has always been a kind to my family. I will miss the talks we had before planting season.
He will be sadly missed.

“ My condolences to Greg's family. Greg was a fine person. I first met Greg when doing business with him and it became a friendship that lasted many years. He took me on my first turkey hunt and allowed me to harvest a fine turkey just after arriving at our spot. I will miss Greg and his friendship. May God continue to share his love with you.
