“ GREG , *LOKIE; Capaha park ,baseball never entered our minds,..Abreath of the most wonderful air approached me with that adorable smile to ask U doing okay today ?I thought to myself why in the world would this young handsome Gent as urself start up a conversation?U said for some reason my Dog Lokie knows when ur here ,so here we are . I offered Lokie a dog treat , but nope ! He wanted Doritos ! Them I told u I had a call named Lokie , and the beginning of a profound understanding of souls , we met everyday , would talk for hours, as if I'd known u all along . U offered a stranger ur kindness , and who u were on the inside ,which was a Secret Garden that I will hold dear to my heart. When I'm there , I still talk to u , and go to the tree where we sat. I love u my friend , I left ur brother my number hoping to see Lokie .Thank u for Sharing something Special ? U , all my luvMelissaDLough

“ Greg was so good. His quiet charm, his laid-back demeanor, his kind character was one to model. His smile was contagious and laugh exceptional. What an honor to have called him a friend. Our deepest condolences.

“ Too many great memories. Our trip to Savannah, the drive to Vermont, literally any night we spent late watching Frank Zappa and Phish concerts. Beer pong tournaments, dart games where you typically schooled me. One of the few friends who would call to catch up which is truly a rare thing these days. I love you man. My heart is broken. Rest In Peace.

“ When I think about Greg, I see him looking back at me with his big mischievous grin. I feel his quick wit making me chuckle and I can't help but grin along with him. My heart aches.

“ I'm so saddened and sorry to learn of Greg's passing. He was a beautiful young man. Greg and my son Joseph Schnell were great friends. Greg was at our house often from grade school on. Such a tragic loss that no words will help. Just know our family loved Greg and he will be sorely missed.
