“ Halylie,

we've been friends since kindergarten. we had three months left before we graduated. i miss you so much right now. Your visitation went good, and so did your burial. It was hard to lay you in the ground. We had so many good times together. I've known you since we were five years old. We use to stay at my house and yours. All those times we played softball and basketball in the house. Oh and i will never forget the times we put sleeping bags down in my kitchen under the bar, and we would run from the bedroom, down the hallway, and slide. We had some crazy and fun times. We all wear purple everyday for you. Your seat in class stays empty and we do everything we can to keep your memory alive. This has been really hard on me, but i guess God had a better plan for you. From little league to ernie bosarth, to middle school to high school varsity, we always played together. I wish we would have got to do all of those things that we planned for. Its hard going to school and you not being here. And when i text your phone, and you don't reply..it kills me. I still talk to your mom and see rosie. Haley, Me, Shelby, Audrie, Jami, Chelse, and everyone else loves you and misses you so much. I know ill see you again one day. Just wait for all of us at the gates. We'll be a team together again. Love you halylie maire!!! love always, katelyn. =)

“ We were all so very sorry to hear about your child. Lisa just came down this week and we started laughing and talking about "back in the day" and how we don't see anybody anymore. I go by your old house all the time on my way to the lake and I always look at George and say "theres where Rhonda and Weiner used to live!!! And he always says, "yes Lynne, you say that everytime we go by it!!!! Just wanted you to know that I was thinking about you!!! I'm on facebook and my email is rolandos51@hotmail.com.

“ Hay Hay, we have the greatest memories at the worst times, but that makes them even better. My favorite memory, without a doubt, is the time i ticked you off with an eraser :). You, Jess, Tony and me were chillin in the back of Algebra 2 class, pretending to do our homework. Ha, Jess was all like "OMG, you just made the best face ever!" Apparently she ticked you off somehow, for whatever reason I never found out, and you made a funny face. I reeeeeally wanted to see it, so Tony told me to make you mad again. That big ole eraser, oh that eraser... smacked you right in the face with it, I did indeed! And Jess was right, it was hilarious! I loved that moment of silence where we are all trying to figure out if you are really mad, then we all bust out laughing like crazy. I'll never forget how awesome you are. love you girly, I know you're kickin all the angels in basketball :)

“ I never really talked to Halylie but I will always have the memories of our elementary school years together. I've been in class with Halylie since kindergarden and she was always nice to everyone and was very dedicated when it came to sports. Even now, in high school, i'll always remember playing powderpuff with her our junior and senior year.

To her family, i'm sorry for your loss.

Rest In Peace Halylie Hines.

“ Rhonda, Britnee, Johnna, Rosie & John,
I remember when Jami & her met in kindergarten She has always had a smile on her face. I know that she will be missed by all who knew & loved her, this is such a sad time for all. It's really hard for us to understand why this had to happen to someone so young but God has a plan for her He needed her more. I'm so sorry for your lose. You're all in my prayers for strength.

“ Hay hay! I don't even know where to begin. I miss you so much even though I know you're in a better place. I haven't known you forever but this past year during basketball you've become one of my good friends. From the long bus rides being completely KNOCKED in the back of the bus to the fun times we had in the locker room! Oh goodness, I knew if you were reading this right now, you would be laughing so hard. I remember that one time we were on the way to Don Taco to SMASH some food (you know what we were on) and we saw those two creepy guys and they got pulled over and we couldn't stop laughing because they were trying to hit on you. Then we got inside to get our food and you got steak nachos and we shared a suicide! It was delicious! Then on the way back we jammed to Nicki Minaj, then at regional you and Shelby fouled out. :) Oh then when you did the three point contest, first you stole my seat and then laughed at me for making Valentines :) :) I miss you so much and I know we don't have many memories but the ones we have I will cherish forever. And NEVER would I ever trade the hurt I'm feeling now for not being able to know you. I love you Hay Hay and I can't wait to see you in heaven and hoop you in some basketball ;)

“ I may not have known Halylie that well, but she was a very awesome girl.

I recall going to MacIvain with her for K-2, and she was always quiet, but she was always nice.

Just recently at the start of second semester, she sat next to me in my First Hour World History 2 class, still quiet, but still friendly.

It's gonna be strange now...

“ Rhonda and family--Words cannot express how sorry we are to hear about Halylie. It has been many years since we seen you. Time has a way of separating people but you still feel like family to us and always will. We can't understand why things like this happen but then we also know that God is in control and we hope that you will lean on him at this time for comfort. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the whole family--we love you {{{hugs}}}
