

Harold "Dean" Mitchell

February 16, 1936 - June 27, 2011

Harold "Dean" Mitchell, 75, of Murphysboro, passed away at 7:16 a.m. Monday, June 27, 2011, at his residence in Murphysboro, Illinois.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 29, 2011, at Pettett Funeral Home with Rev. Ruby Popejoy officiating and burial at Walker Hill Cemetery at Grand Tower. Friends may call from 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday and until 11 a.m. on Wednesday at the funeral home.

Harold was born on February 16, 1936, in Sand Ridge, Illinois, to Harold Mitchell and Minnie (Neace) Mitchell.

He served in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Mr. Mitchell worked for the Laborer's Local # 160 for twenty seven years.

He restored classic cars, and the last car he fixed up was a 1955 Olds. He especially like to go fishing with Joe Dean Grammer. He loved to laugh and to make other people smile!

Dean married Barbara Cross on October 9, 1954, in Murphysboro, and she survives.

Other survivors include three children and their spouses Brenda and Gary Rebman and Debbie and Kenny Goetz, all of Murphysboro, and Joe and Dawn Mitchell of Vergennes;

eight grandchildren Chris Rebman, Mike Rebman, Allie Griest, Randy Goetz, Josh Mitchell, Jamie Goetz, Lily Mitchell, and Lanie Goetz;

four great grandchildren Luke Rebman, Nick Rebman, Aaron Rebman, and Annabelle Rebman;

one brother Bill Mitchell of Murphysboro; and one sister Linda Kay (Mitchell) Stein of Murphysboro.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one great granddaughter Miriam Rebman.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I did not know in time or would have been at the services. Harold thought a lot of my mother (Ann Connor) and she of him. He always had a smile for us when we saw him. He will be dearly missed. My prayers are with you Barb and Brenda. Much love in Jesus!
