My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during the loss of your Mother. There are no words of comfort that really help in the long term but the assurance that we will someday be reunited with our Mothers in Heaven is of some comfort.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you say "by for now" to your loved one. She was a very special 1st cousin to my mother, Myrtle Day Vest. Mother loved Hazel and spoke so highly of her. We know your family will miss her. She's having the ultimate experience of seeing her Savior face to face and all her loved ones. PTL for her long life. Cousin, Virginia

“ My Aunt Hazel was one of the most kind but yet strongest women I have ever known. She loved with all her heart. The smell of her home cooked meals always created such happy memories from visits to her home. We were all blessed to know her and we will miss her dearly, but the love of her life, Uncle Sam is welcoming her with all the angels and the Lord, who she followed faithfully and practiced her strong Faith in God so openly. We offer our prayers and support to her amazing family and remember her with love....Until we meet on that beautiful shore dear Aunt Hazel....love from Vicki and Reese

“ So sorry for your loss, she was the sweetest, and always will be Aunt Hazel to me. Loved her teasing and loved hearing the stories. Will never forget her and Uncle Sam driving to Salem, when my dear husband passed away to support me, that was so special to me to see them. She always listened in kind, will be dearly missed, love and hugs to you all a lot of great memories of her forever in your heart. 100 years of life to celebrate, I am so glad that I got to share that milestone with her last year that was awesome. Love ya all! Linda Inman
