“ To the family of Herb Brown: I am sorry for your loss. When I started working at the Carbondale Armory in January of 1992, Herb was my supervisor. He was such a good man and a always was a pleasure to work with. I missed him when he retired from the guard for he was a cornerstone in this armory and in the guard. He seldom went out for lunch during the week. You could find him in his office at noon with a can of tuna and crackers. I remember telling him that I had never seen someone eat as much tuna and never get tired of eating it.

He will be missed by many.
