

Jack L Taylor

March 1, 1932 - March 19, 2024

IN MEMORY OF:
JACK L. TAYLOR

Serving Location:
CRAIN PLEASANT GROVE-MURDALE FUNERAL HOME
31 Memorial Drive, Murphysboro, Illinois

Jack L. Taylor, age 92 of Carbondale, passed away Tuesday, March 19, 2024 in Illinois Veterans Home in Anna surrounded by the dedicated loving staff and family.

He was born in Indianapolis, IN on March 1, 1932 to Charlie and Geneva (McCormick) Taylor.

He proudly served his country in the United States Army.

Jack married Sandra Taylor and she preceded him in death.

He spent many years as a young father, coaching for his sons, Ray and Will's little league games.

He retired from the Illinois Department of Revenue as a supervisor after 20 plus years of faithful service. He was well loved among his family and community. He will be remembered for always having a good story to tell and will be greatly missed.

He loved animals.

His greatest joy in life was his grandchildren. He was a wonderful doting grandfather.

Jack is survived by his sons, Ray (Emberre) Taylor of Carbondale and William B. Taylor of Elgin; step-children, Michael and Tracy; grandchildren Patricia and partner, George Wright; William Jr.; Willie; Daylynn; Draysun and Delayne; other relatives and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Sandra; a brother, Ray Taylor and his dog, Lucy.

The cremation of Jack L. Taylor has been personally handled by the staff of Crain Funeral Home.

Inurnment will be at a later date in Mulkeytown Cemetery.

Crain Pleasant Grove-Murdale Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Cemetery Details

Mulkeytown Cemetery