Aunt Jackie was a slice of pure goodness in a world flowing with evil. She was a beacon and a saint to all who knew her. I have never been much on religion but she rest with peace and good conscious of her own love with her lord. I light a candle beside me as I posted this and I will watch it thinking of her and all that she represents.

“ I have no memory of Jackie first hand, but I am close to her daughter Carmen, and watched as she searched for her birth mom for years. I was so excited when she not only found her, but was reunited in a wonderful meeting. They have been two peas in a pod ever since. Jackie n I shared 3 grandchildren and a great grandchild. I have been looking forward to meeting this wonderful young lady and now I will never see that dream to fruition. I do, however, feel as though I know her from talking to Carmen and Alec. I know she will be missed by her family so much. May I extend my condolences and deep felt sympathies to the entire family. May God bring U all comfort in memories.
