“ Sue & family my prayers for comfort & strength are being sent your way. Your dad was a kind & gentle spirit. Always had that infectious smile to share with everyone. I remember the days of showing at the Union County Fair & him joking with my dad & I that Angus cattle were not the best like we thought 😊 Judy (Mighell) Sullivan Murray

“ There are so many memories that I could share of my Uncle Curt. Him and Aunt Jean were like my other parents. When mom or dad says who wants to go to Aunt Jeans we were so excited. We loved going over there I remember eating lots of meals over there. Aunt Jeans goulash was great her spaghetti was great and Uncle Curt always piling more food on your plate. Ah you can eat that much you dont eat enough to keep a bird alive. He would say.. That man could eat I remember his plate all piled up and thinking how can he eat so much and stay so skinny. I loved his smell. He smelled like old spice. And the stuff he put in his hair. His hair all slicked down. He looked so nice whenever he went somewhere he always looked nice. Not to long ago we were having chemo at the same time. I got to sit in the chair right next to him. I could smell the cologne and the hair tonic . And he looked really nice blue jeans crisp and pressed and hid famous plaid shirt. Sitting next to him I felt like a little kid again. He was such a wonderful man father and grandfather. I Ould go on and on about the stories of my Uncle Curt. I was proud to be his niece. I will always love you and never ever forget him. I love you Uncle Curt from your silly niece Eva Prater
