“ I am deeply saddened to recently find out about Jim's passing- we had so many good times together- studying at Edinburgh University and traveling all over Europe until we came to the US together. Jim was a very intelligent and fun person and I have many fond memories of our time together. My thoughts go out to his parents and family members.

“ Jim had a wonderful heart. He was generous warm hearted with a devilish sense of humor. He had a hunger to understand. He was a lifetime learner. I am sure that he was warmly welcomed by Our Lord when he returned home, “ Jim was one of my best friends in high school. We played Indian ball, took classes together, and in general had a great time.

I remember after he came back from Europe with his wife Liz, we 3 did several things together, and he worked very hard to get to go to Wash U.

It was fun knowing Jim back in those days.

A few years ago, when another classmate died, I got a group together to visit together and seize the day, so to speak. We met at Port Cape, and Jim was alongside to toast our friend.

Now, we do the same in memory of another really good fellow.
