“ Jim was an awesome guy. He cared a lot for the congregation. He saved my cat when I had nothing, I will forever be grateful. I sincerely believe that he is in the arms of Jesus, and that one day I can stand by Jesus' side with him.

“ I didn't know Jim well, but I knew he was a giving man. He and Jan were volunteers for our Storybook Project. This required going into prison and helping incarcerated parents read books to their children. Not everyone wants to go to prison. This was an easy thing for Jim and his wife. He must have had the gift of compassion. I am so grateful to him for his service and his example of Christian love. I will miss seeing him at Epiphany when we visit. God's peace to all who mourn him...that includes me.

“ My deepest condolences and know that DeKalb is a better place because of him.
Wish I could of told him my horse phase wasn't a phase. Joking aside.
He use to try to get me to check out different books . Lol, probably should of listened

One of my favorite memories of Jim is from his gift of photography. He took pictures of nephew Todd's wedding. His photos seemed to grasp the essence of the moment captured in ways that were magical. He made the world a better place for his love and using the gifts God gave him toward that end. My deepest condolences to the family. May all feel God's love and comfort even in the midst of deep grief.

Jim was a prince of a man. He was caring, generous, dutiful, loyal, willing, and talented. Together with Jan they served family, church, and community tirelessly. I have great respect, fondness, and admiration for both. I'm sorry that the end of Jim's life journey was so hard for both Jim and Jan. Good people. It's a sad day without Jim.

Jim was a wonderful man and educator. Always had a nice smile and a funny story to tell. His kindness to others left a large impact on those of us who had the privilege to have know him for part of our lives. God bless and rest in peace.
