To the Family of Jesus Vasquez-Mendoza:

Alfonso, Guillerma, Emily and the entire Vasquez-Mendoza Family, we, the New Zion Missionary Baptist Church Family of Faith, are praying for your strength during this your weakest hours. We know that God stands near for He said; “He would never leave you, nor will He forsake you”.

In the end of this life, God has a new beginning for us. Jesus Vasquez-Mendoza is now in God’s presence reaping the rewards of God’s children. To be in the presence of the Lord is a time of praise. Jesus not only gave her presence to you, his family, but to his community as well. We thank God for Jesus and the influence he left us.

Let the tears flow. It is human to cry. Crying helps heal. Cry with friends, family, and alone. Don’t be surprised when the grief “freight train” runs over you. Just be in the moment, and it will pass. Struggle through your emotions and you will find relief as your reward.

We pray that as time passes your loss will be less painful. God didn’t promise days without pain, laughter without sorrow, sun without rain, but He did promise strength for the day, comfort for the tears and light for the way and that the Lord will lift you from sorrow and place you in a fountain of peace. Family, please know that we will keep you lifted up in prayer and if there is anything that we can do for you during this trial in your life, please don’t hesitate to call on your New Zion Missionary Baptist Church Family of Faith.

My prayers are for the entire Mendoza family. Jesus Will be greatly missed. I'll miss him coming to my office, late to school with Jose , an telling me with a smile - "I don't know why I'm late, can I just get a pass!" There are no words of consolation that can comfort your hearts right now, but please know that Jesus will truly be missed at CCHS. V. Greer, CCHS Attendance Officer

I'm very sorry for your lost. He was my next door neighbor and you guys moved in that house, I was very glad because we had another kid to play with in the neighborhood. We used to play with his BeyBlades on our porch. I will truly miss him at school, and he will always be remembered as a cool and funny person.
