“ Paige Williams sorry to hear about your passing of your father. I always liked when you share videos of your mom and dad and everybody having fun and family interacting with one another. It was always so nice when you shared the memories with everybody. Rest in peace John Edward Williams. I know your family will miss you. And there's a lot of us that will miss the videos of you at holidays and other events that page always shared with everybody. Sending out prayers and hugs to the family.
