“ Jonathan became like a little brother to me in the short time we were able to spend with each other. He was one of the purest souls I have ever met. He was always kind to his fellow man and always had an ear to listen. He cared so much for his family! His eyes always lit up when he would speak of them! He is someone I know will carry weight in my heart every year that passes. I would like to thank his parents for give us such a beautiful light in our lives. Rest peacefully my friend.

“ One of the best kids I ever knew. His infectious smile, his zest for life, and love for everyone. His friends were his life. And his life was his friends.

Thank you for carving out time to come to Missouri and visit us! You treated everyone with respect and loved as hard as you lived! ❤️
