

Josephine Carol Parmer

March 25, 1924 - February 28, 2022

Josephine Carol Parmer (née Congiardo) 97, of Murphysboro, passed away on Monday, Feb.28, 2022 at Manor Court in Carbondale.

Josephine was born in Buckner, Il on 3/25/24 to Sam and Rose Concialdi.

She was a member of St. Andrew's Church in Murphysboro, Il.

Josephine enjoyed dancing, cooking, sewing, baking, old Westerns and game shows on TV. She was a volunteer at St. Joe's gift shop for many years. Not just an excellent salesperson, but an expert at dressing the showcases and windows.

Survivors include niece Jennifer Collins, nephew Paul Sherman, great nephew Bobby Mastrodonato and many great nephews and nieces.

She is proceeded in death by her parents, her sister Geneva Paglini, her brothers Tony and Sam and her great nephew and godson, Christopher Mastrodonato.

She will be cremated and a private burial will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. Jude's Children's Research

Hospital.

For more information, please visit pettettfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Josephine Carol Parmer

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM

“ Babe was wonderful and kind person she always had a friendly smile and hello for everyone she would meet. We will cherish the days we would get together to cook her favorite recipes. No one could cook like her. She was another member of our family and we will miss her dearly. ❤️

Marianne Hindman - March 05, 2022 at 04:54 PM

“ My cousin, Babe saw sunshine in the storms. She loved my children, Kristin and Alex and husband, Sam. She was more a mother to me than my biological mother. Aunt Rose, her mother, was my grandma Santa Genovese's aunt. Aunt Rose, and Babe visited me in Hawaii and we went everywhere and had a grand time. She came to visit me many times in CA, and my kids fell in love with her. She is deeply missed by all of us.

Kimi Minor - March 04, 2022 at 05:36 PM

“ My cousin, Babe saw sunshine in the storms. She loved my children, Kristin and Alex and husband, Sam. She was more a mother to me than my biological mother. Aunt Rose, her mother, was my grandma Santa Genovese's aunt. Aunt Rose, and Babe visited me in Hawaii and we went everywhere and had a grand time. She came to visit me many times in CA, and my kids fell in love with her. She is deeply missed by all of us.

Kimi Minor - March 04, 2022 at 05:36 PM