“ I am so sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one can be a very difficult time for many families. I hope you can find comfort in the resurrection promise. At Acts 15:29 we are promised to see our loved ones again. Won't it be wonderful to see our loved ones again?

“ Mike I can't begin to know the grief that you and your wife have at this time. As the parent of two children I can only imagine how I would feel at the loss of one much less both. I hope you both can take strength in God at this time and from all of your friends and family that care about you. I just wanted to express our deepest sympathies and let you know that you both are in our thoughts and prayers. Hang in there buddy.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to my Aunt Susie and Uncle Kevin. Josh and Heather always held a special place in my heart. I was so distraught to hear of Josh's passing. I hope that the two of you can find some solace in your religion and the support of your family and friends.

“ I just hate that we have reconnected and instead of getting a chance to meet and learn about your sweet boy that this has happened. I read that you've lost your Heather also. My heart aches for you both. It looks like your faith is strong and I pray that sustains you in this time of grieving. My love to you and Joey and all of your family and friends that loved your Joshua.
