“ I remember when my grandma Judy and Bob Jones lived on Connie Court in Aurora Illinois and I could tell my mom how to get to there house when I was only two years old and I would have my mom stop at the same gas station on the way so I could use the bathroom “even though I never had to go.”

I remember standing at the top of the stairs at the house on Connie Court and I threw a stick down the stairs to help get firewood. I looked into grandma Judy’s bedroom and I saw her teeth in a cup of water on their headboard of the bed. “ she thought it was funny to pop her teeth out at me. I didn’t think it was that funny, but she would just laugh.

I remember grandme Judy would take me to the Eagles club, and I would win the stuffed animals out of the machine. I still win stuffed animals out of machines. Anytime I see a machine I win a stuffed animal I think it’s from all the practice I had lol. And grandma would take me to the Easter egg hunt at the Eagles club.

On Christmas every year I knew I would have socks and underwear no matter what every year. they may have been granny panties but that’s what you get when you get them from grandma lol. No, I look forward to them .My kids get socks and underwear every year too. I’ve been doing that for a few years now “I mean Santa has.”

Grandma would take me to lunch at the Hollywood casino downtown Aurora and I just thought I was so cool to eat in there with the big sharks and stuff hanging on the wall

One year she drove up to Aurora “yorkville” and picked up me and Jennifer for Christmas and we were headed down to East Cape Girardeau where grandma lived at and we drove through a construction site and I remember we woke up and Jennifer was like Ooh La La at the construction workers it was always fun traveling with grandma Judy “ listening to Conway Twitty”lol

I remember when I was old enough to buy a lottery ticket and grandma gave me the money to buy my first ticket and I walked to the purple crackle in East Cape Girardeau and I bought a bingo scratch off and I won $100 and that little bugger she didn't even give me any money lol

I remember going to fountain blue Lodge a nursing home, where she worked washing residence laundry . I thought she looked so cute. To this day, I fold my towels and blankets the same way she did.

I remember when she would make pork chops in the crockpot with potatoes and green beans. I can smell it right now.

I went to Shawnee high school in Wolflake, Illinois on the day that I turned 16 the office called me down to be signed out. I had never really been signed out. I thought I was in trouble, but my grandma was there to take me to Anna Illinois where we went to the DMV and I got my drivers license, that was one of the best birthdays I ever had.

No matter what my grandma loved me, and she would be there for me!!!!!!

I remember when grandma Judy and I were going through the drive-through at Hardee's and she said Heather, what do you want? I want pickles and the lady in the drive-through gave us a cup of pickles.

Grandma always remembered my name, loved kisses on her neck and her back scratched. What I would do to get my back scratched one more time or better yet scratch her back.

Grandma Judy had the longest beautiful hair at integrity healthcare. I hope that I'm just half as beautiful as she was when she left to be with the bright people. ☐☐ I'm sorry you couldn't remember grandma.

I LOVE YOU
