

Julia Hensley

August 21, 1924 - September 24, 2008

Julia Hensley, age 84, of Murphysboro, passed away at her home in Murphysboro on Wednesday afternoon, September 24, 2008.

Julia was born on August 21, 1924, to the late John and Agnes Kazmierczuk in Brooklyn, New York.

She married Robert L. "Bus" Hensley on September 7th, 1946, in Brooklyn, NY, and he preceded her in death on January 15, 1997.

A patriotic American, she served her country proudly in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

She is survived by two sons Lester F. Hensley of Murphysboro and Tim Hensley and Jill Dill of Bradenton, FL

one daughter Sharon Peebles and her husband John Peebles of Gainesville, FL;

three grandchildren Janell Leafblad of Livermore, CA, Leslie Peebles and John Robert Peebles of Gainesville, FL;

and two great grandchildren Patrica Nordstrom and Tristan Leafblad.

She was preceded in death by her son Robert L. Hensley, four brothers, and one sister.

We will miss her warm smile, her gentle and generous nature, her strong will and determination, and her wonderful sense of humor!

We would also like to thank the physicians and nursing staff at St. Joseph Hospital in Murphysboro for their skillful hands and caring hearts, our friends, neighbors, and extended family, and Hospice of Southern Illinois, Inc, especially Elizabeth.
