“Karen was a good friend and wonderful Christian woman. She and I taught the Girls in Action missions' class at Vann Avenue Baptist Church for many years. We shared a bond as fellow servants but also outside of the church setting. Karen loved stuffed bears and collected many over the years. She loved country music, especially Alan Jackson, and spent many hours listening to "The Lloyd" radio station sitting in the SHE SHACK Larry built for her. She made beautiful purses, loved to draw and write poetry. She loved her dogs, most recently Duke, Brandy and Stanley. She loved her family most of all. There was never a conversation that did not include Larry, Michael, Michelle, her mom and dad or siblings. She was very proud of her soldier and spoke fondly of her years as a Marine wife and the places they had lived over the years. The past few years of her life were troubled, and it was hard to see the change that the trials of life brought to her. I am so blessed to have spent time with her in the hospital, she was more like her old self than I had seen in a long time. My heart is broken yet rejoices knowing she is home with the Savior she loved so much, free from pain and sorrow, reunited with loved ones she has missed so much. Larry, Mike, Michelle, may God grant you many wonderful memories to comfort you until you are all together again. Blessings.
