“ I am kathy' the mother of his oldest daughter, karla Rae. I want to say that he love all of his children no matter what. Weslie is the oldest of his grandchildren' i remember when she was little he called her his breakfast buddy. She would always get up early and eat breakfast and have coffee with him. He would give her milk and a splash of coffee and she loved it. All of his children were special to him. I went to set with him and my daughter karla the day of his passing' i asked him... Kenny do you remember when i totaled your Impala? He shook his head yes then i asked him...are you still mad at me? He shook his head yes.. I will carry that special moment forever. Kara was holding his hand' and tears running down her face she say's to him. Daddy you know i love you dont you very much? He shook his head yes. Then she says Daddy are you scared? He shook his head yes and she said yo him. Please don't be scared Daddy' God has a special place for you in Heaven and you will never hurt again. And one day i will see you again. At that moment i started to cry and pray. Dear God' please dont let kenny suffer anymore. Hes tired and ready to come home with you. Hes suffered so long God so please help him to not hurt anymore. After i got home from the hospital i was taking a hot bath and prayed again for kenny' and the lord answered my prayer. I recieved a call shortly after 10 pm of his passing. So as for that i will say..God is good' Kenny is in heaven and he will never hurt again. Always remember the goodness he had in his heart and the love he had for his children. He was good man and thats why we should cherrish the memories and he may rest in peace.
