“ Kevin was a very close friend to both my family and to me. He was in the hospital room when I was born and helped my mom and dad tremendously when I was young. I have several fond memories of Kev including going to a St Louis Cardinals baseball game with him while he scored the game (he loved doing that). He also made it a point to make the 600 mile trip from Carbondale to Charlotte North Carolina to watch me graduate high school, which really did mean more to me than he knows. Kev, to the very core of who he was, was a kind soul and a great man. I will miss him very much.

Kev, I love you and I hope you are resting in paradise, brother.

Your friend always,

G
