“ I met Kim when I was 15 and she was almost 12. I loved her family immediately. Kim caught the bouquet at my wedding and we've been friends and cousins every since. We never know when we hug good bye that it will be our last hug, I am glad I got that chance in July. Missing you already Kim, I am praying for your family.

“ I cry when I think that you are gone but you would hate it. Too many years of laughing, you were full of laughter, you always were fun. I will remember that!

“ I am very sorry for your loss! I knew Kim when we were teenagers but I moved away and we lost touch. What I remember most about Kim were her smiles and laughter. I can never think of a time she wasn't doing one or both!

“ Kim WAs one of he kindest people I ever knew. There wasn't a mean bone in her body. She accepted everyone for who they were. There will never be another onelikeher. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. She was so proud of all you kids, and the 2 grand babies. There was nothing she wouldn't do for you. She bragged about all of you! She will be missed and am so blessed to have known her. Please let us know if here is something we can do. Sarah, and Kevin Hunter
