“ I have known many kind and loving women in my life. Cousin June is right there in the top of the list. Though we haven't seen much of each other over the years, all that time would melt away when we saw each other at family functions. Gonna miss you cousin. Time to live out your eternity with love, health and happiness.

However, we all can find a measure of solace during this difficult time from the God of all comfort. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Our loving God has also promised to end all suffering and death soon and forever. Revelation 21:4. May you have peace in this promise.
