“ Larry is one of the people in my life who I have such pleasant memories of. He was always in a good mood, and always had a joke or a funny story to tell, and many times the funny stories were about him and some crazy escapade that he was involved in. Larry was a few years older than me, and we really didn't see each other very often, but every time we crossed paths, it was a very pleasant experience. One of the things I remember most about Larry was that when he got tickled about something and started laughing, his face would get beet red and almost looked shiny. If you weren't laughing before he started laughing, you would be very quickly. He was such a funny pleasant guy! Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Beloved Cousin Larry

*We sang in the sunshine and cried in the rain,
Together we shared no matter what came.
As Larry's long journey comes to an end,
I'll always remember and call him my friend.*

*Yes youthful memories live on in my heart,
Your kindness to others set you apart.
The laughter you brought with stories galore,
Enchanted us all forever more.*

*And now as the sunset draws near to me,
I look forward to the day when my eyes shall see
Cousin Larry in heaven with arms open wide,
Joyfully waiting to stand by my side.*

RIP "Cous" until we meet again!

We love you Larry.

*With our deepest sympathies to you Bryan, and your entire Family.
On the wings of love,*

Larry Joe was a very kind and special person to people I don't believe he every met someone he didn't know!
As a youngster growing up and Larry being older he never looked down on us younger guys taking time to include us in basketball games in his backyard. Always a friend. His school reunions are to be remembered. Rest in peace my friend.
