

Lawrence "Bud" Glasford, Jr.

February 15, 1935 - May 21, 2013

Lawrence "Bud" Glasford, Jr., 78, of Murphysboro, Illinois, passed away at 8:45 p.m. Tuesday, May 21, 2013, at Heartland Regional Medical Center in Marion, Illinois.

Funeral services will be held at 12 noon Friday, May 24, 2013, at Pettett Funeral Home with Rev. George D. Calhoun officiating and burial at Alto Pass Cemetery. Friends may call from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the funeral home.

Lawrence was born on February 15, 1935, in Carbondale, Illinois, to Lawrence E. Glasford, Sr., and Velma (Adams) Glasford.

Bud began working for Selmer Peerless Towel and Linen from 1953 to 1977 and then worked as a technician for the former TCI and now Mediacom from 1977 to 1993. He also had his own TV repair business. He was a member of the I.B.E.W. and a Union Steward. Bud was a very hard worker and was truly a Mr. Fix-It, because he could fix anything. He was a wonderful husband and provider, father, grandfather, and friend to many. He had a strong love for children, and he especially loved auctions and yard sales.

He and Marilyn Kilinski have been companions since 1983. They were married on October 9, 2006, in Murphysboro, and Marilyn survives.

Other survivors include two children Gregory Wayne Glasford and his wife Diane Glasford of Carbondale, and Debra (Glasford) Mills of Carbondale;

one step daughter Brenda Rucker and her husband Charlie Rucker of Colp;

two grandchildren Crystal (Glasford) Cooper and her husband Jon Copper of Carbondale, and Nathaniel Mills of Hawaii;

eight step grandchildren including Lindsey Nicole Hewlett, Devin Crain, and Levi Alexander Rucker; two great grandchildren Lane Austin Cooper and Peyton Noelle Mills; and one step great granddaughter Tara Marie Cooper.

He was preceded in death by one sister Dolores Pautler and his parents.
