Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – TAMMS

420 Front Street, Tamms, Illinois

Lenora O. Lovell, 85, of Metropolis, passed away on Thursday, July 11, 2024 at Southgate Nursing Home.

Lenora was born on January 28, 1939 in Wynne, Arkansas to Connie and Zella (Robertson) Meggs. She married the love of her life, Donald R. Lovell on February 11, 1956 and spent many wonderful years with one another and raising a family. He preceded her in death on October 14, 2019.

Lenora worked hard her whole life help raising her siblings, she being the oldest. She was a dedicated wife and mother. Lenora stepped up and went to the school for the blind in Chicago and learned to run her own business (D and L Vending) which she ran at the Metropolis rest area when Donald's job closed and he became ill. Her and Donald worked together for many years. She was the kindest person.

Survivors include her sons, Donald Lovell, and Mark (Theresa Ann) Lovell; daughter, Amy (Larry) McCandless; grandchildren, Matthew Lovell, Ryan Lovell, Tarah Lovell, and Dillon Lovell; seven great-grandchildren; brothers, Anthony (Sue) Meggs, and Ted Meggs; and sister, Brenda (Stanley) Turner.

Along with her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a great-grandchild.

I talked to her a couple of times when she lived in Dupo, and she was the nicest and most friendly person. She was a strong lady. With Deepest Sympathy, Mary Schultz
