“ *To the Entire Strohmeier Family,
My heartfelt condolences to each one in the family. I have many fond memories of Uncle Leon. He was always kind and had a smile for anyone he met. I remember our family playing baseball at Fern Cliff park where we had a breakfast picnic every time we came up from Texas to visit. And playing Pinochle was a must for Uncle Leon, Aunt Sharon and mom and dad. A wonderful memory that will stay with me always is seeing he and my mom sitting on the porch smoking and laughing. They are both living pain-free in Heaven now.
May God bring peace and comfort to the family.
Love,
Gail*
