“ I was so saddened to learn of Lillian's passing. Such fond memories of Lillian and Wilbur hosting us in their farm home when us "Desparados" would help David with various farm chores. No one could put on a spread the way Lillian could, and I still remind my wife and girls to this day, with respect to Lillian, this is how's its done! 😊 My condolences to all the Jacquot Families... “ What a special lady, I bowled on the same night with her in Carbondale, we enjoyed going to the Women of the Moose meetings together and even did a little shopping together while our guys bowled. She will be missed.

I have known Lillian for many years and she was a very special lady. God gifted her with so many talents. My husband and I used to bowl with her and Wilbur and they were fun to be with on many other occasions.
