

Lillian L. Ingram

September 8, 1930 - January 18, 2008

Lillian Lucille Ingram, age 77, of Murphysboro, passed away at 10:40 p.m. Friday January 18, 2008, at City Care Nursing Home in Cobden.

Lillian was born on September 8, 1930, in Vergennes, Illinois, to Frank E. Tuthill and Bertha (Oliver) Tuthill.

Mrs. Ingram had worked at Good Luck Glove, Jo-Mac Manufacturing, and retired from Southern Illinois University in May of 1996 after twenty-four years of service.

She enjoyed cooking, gardening, and quilting.

Lillian married Daniel L. Pierce in the early 1950's, and together, they had five children. She later married David P. Ingram on July 27, 1963, in Vergennes, and he preceded her in death on November 13, 2001.

She is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law, Danny Pierce and Linda Pierce of Salem, IL, Joseph Pierce and Sandy Pierce of Desoto;

one daughter Carol Lartch of Knoxville, TN, one daughter-in-law Becky Pierce of St. Louis, MO;

five grandchildren Jennifer Evans, Jessica Worthen, Casey Pierce, Danny Robert Pierce, and Alexandria Pierce; and seven great-grandchildren.

Lillian was preceded in death by one son Thomas Andrew Pierce, and one infant daughter Janice Marie Pierce, six sisters Agnes Parrish, Ida Tuthill, Ann Bush, Alta David, Charlotte Kramer PhD., Emma Summerville PhD., two brothers Harry Tuthill and Frank E. Tuthill PhD and her parents.

Tribute Wall

“ Lillian L. Ingram

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM