

Lillian Levan

March 20, 1922 - April 9, 2011

Lillian Eunice Levan, 89, of Murphysboro, Illinois, went peacefully to be with Jesus at 9 p.m. Saturday, April 9, 2011, at St. Francis Medical Center in Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

Lillian was born on March 9, 1922, in Ava, Illinois, to Henry Dietz and Kate (Freres) Dietz.

Mrs. Levan was a member of the Galilee Baptist Church, where she had served as a Sunday School teacher for many years.

She and William "Bill" Levan were both from Ava, Illinois, and they left on January 11, 1941, for their "destination wedding" to Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Together they had five children, and she was preceded in death by Bill and one son Jimmy.

Lillian is survived by four children Joyce Ann Elbrecht, Pat Simpkins, Linda Kay Biondo and Roger Levan; many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Lillian had been full of life and she loved her children deeply. She had been asked, what were some of her most memorable things in her life and she said that she loved farm life, holidays, family dinners, and that they had went on family vacations together.

Private funeral services were held at Pettett Funeral Home with burial at Pleasant Hill Cemetery.
