“ Think the world of this wonderful lady, she was like a big sister on the school bus as we grew up. She never hesitated to stop and give me a prayer when she saw me. She will be missed. But we all know she is in Heaven right now hand in hand with Jesus telling her Well Done.

“ 74 going on 17, I don't know where to begin... Aunt Linda, was everything anyone could ever hope to have or be as a friend, mom, wife, sister, granny, daughter, aunt and truly NEVER met a stranger. A trip to Wal-Mart was literally an all day event, because she couldn't get through an aisle without seeing someone she did or didn't know! She was and always will be all of our hero's, mentor's, an angel on earth and now looking after us all still, holding down the fort. Love you to the moon, Aunt Linda. Rest now. ❤️

“ Sweet Linda and I started working at Anna National Bank the same week. From the start she and I would chat and laugh multiple times each working day. With her, every day is a great day. Laughing at the lighter side of life was what we did! She always had a set of words or choice words to make a comment on something. Since that job Linda and I stayed in touch and talked about her kids I had had in school and even coached. I have been blessed by knowing Linda. I will carry her spirit with me throughout my days and smile. RIP dear friend. See you on the other side! Hugs and prayers to her family and friends. Sheree F
