“ To my extended family the Hernandez
I am very sorry for your loss. you are extended family to me. I can't explain in words how much sorrow I share with you all losing a great women on this earth like Linda: a mother, grandmother, wife , sister and best friend was. I know the pain you all are feeling loosing a love one. I wish I could say something to make it easier but I can't. All I can say is heaven has gain a super angle and she's watching down on all of us. I pray for peace and harmony to help ease the pain for you all. There will be good days and bad days in know but just remember she loved u all in away no other could come close to loving you. I know God will lead and guide you through your sorrow you feel . Just keep strong for her and others as she is watching over you she's not gone in your heart and spirits. Love to all
