

Linda Lou Minzenberger

April 12, 1941 - June 24, 2024

IN MEMORY OF:

Linda Lou Minzenberger

Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – EGYPTIAN MEMORIAL GARDENS

3208 South Park Avenue, Energy, Illinois

Linda Lou Minzenberger, 83, of Marion, formerly of Indianapolis, passed away on Monday, June 24, 2024 at Herrin Hospital.

Linda was born on April 12, 1941 in West Virginia to Cecil and Eliza (Ackers) DeWees. She married William Minzenberger on October 18, 1991.

Linda worked primarily as a waitress and salad bar supervisor for Marsh Supermarkets. She was an amazing cook and seamstress. Linda was an avid reader and loved animals and she enjoyed playing monopoly with her family, camping, fishing, yard sales and thrift stores.

Survivors include her husband, Bill; daughter, Mary Sloan (Scott Biggs); grandsons, John Davis (Kelly), and Jeremy Biggs; great-grandchildren, Jonathan Davis, and Cayla Biggs; and her cat Sammy Lee.

She was preceded in death by her parents; several brothers, and sisters; and her faithful companion, Polly the dog.

The cremation of Linda was personally handled by the staff at Crain Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Crain Funeral Home in Energy is handling the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ I did not know Linda but I know her daughter Mary. Mary is one of the sweetest women I have ever met. Sorry for your loss, Mary. Love you. ”

---

Carolyn Biggs - June 28, 2024 at 10:15 AM

TC

“ Tina Conley lit a candle in memory of Linda Minzenberger ”

---

Tina Conley - June 26, 2024 at 07:08 PM