“ Cousin Sue was 7 years older than I and the most memorable memory of Sue is: The Ditterline family had a Sunday picnic on the river and Uncle Penny had brought his little, metal, John Boat for all the kids to ski behind and to take people for rides. Several of us kids had skied and Sue showed up later dressed in a pretty white dress and wanted to ski. Well against everyone's concerns she did it anyway. I can remember Uncle Penny and I laughing so hard and him having the biggest smile on his face. The muddy water had her dress not so white when she was done. RIP Sue and say hi to all that has gone before you. My deepest condolences to her family from Peggy Casper Penrod and family and Phillip Casper and family and from me Gail Casper Wells and family. Prayers for all.
