

Logan Reed Norton

July 1, 1997 - June 8, 2022

Logan Reed Norton, 24, of Maple Park, IL left us to continue his audio career with God on June 8, 2022. We can't think of a better apprenticeship. As talented as he was as an audio engineer, sound recordist and writer, his father constantly told him there was always more to learn and we understand there are beautiful sounds to be heard in Heaven.

Logan was born on July 1st 1997 to John and Karen (Worcester) Norton and he always brought much happiness to all of his family and friends. He was caring, conscientious and quick witted which made him a joy to be around. He loved movies, video games and music. His favorite band was Coheed and Cambria and he could tell you everything about them. Seriously, everything.

He graduated from the Illinois Media School in Lombard IL. where he studied radio and television broadcasting. However, he soon found himself gravitating toward the audio field and became a sound recording engineer for feature films working alongside his father. He also provided post audio work for many projects and his work was always exceptional. He was also a very talented writer having written many things including one long form comedic audioplay, and co-writing two feature films with his father. All of these projects will be going into production to continue his legacy.

Logan loved being online with his many friends and playing video games deep into the night. He would often wake his parents with loud, shall we say, inappropriate language. When this was brought to his attention his favorite reply was always, "Profanity is the seasoning of sentences!" Who could argue with that?

Logan is survived by his mother, Karen (Worcester) Norton, father, John Wesley Norton Jr., three siblings, John Wesley Norton III and his wife Rachel (Brady) Norton, Tana (Rosenberger) Lombardo and her husband Anthony Lombardo, and John Rosenberger and his wife Lori (Alford) Rosenberger. His grandparents were grandmother Donna (Reed) Norton, grandmother Shirley (McCole) Worcester and grandfather Stuart Worcester. There are many, many cousins that he had strong bonds with including Derek Gollither and his wife Kacie (Hill) Gollither, Alexia Jones, Evan Gollither and his fiance Castiel Gattis, Cooper Norton and Annie Williams, Wesley Kari and Amber Kari. His aunts and uncles included Cheryl (Norton) Gollither, Lori Norton, and Cindy (Worcester) Kari. His nieces and nephews are Zachary Lombardo, Emma Lombardo, Keagan Jones, Kelton Jones and Estella Gollither,

He was preceded in death by his grandfather John Wesley Norton, Sr. who is joyously showing him around the afterlife as we speak.

Logan was a very caring person, especially when it came to his mother whom he took very good care of and forged a special relationship with that not even his passing shall diminish.
