Lois D. Morgan, age 78, of Carbondale and formerly of Murphysboro, passed away at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, July 24, 2008, at Memorial Hospital in Carbondale, Illinois.

Lois was born and raised in Murphysboro, to Wililam James Kiel and Minnie Louise (Baskin) Kiel.

She was a homemaker.

Lois was an artist and a published poet. She was an awesome interior decorator and she loved to travel.

Mrs. Morgan was a member of Murdale Baptist Church in Carbondale, Illinois.

She was survived by two sons and a daughter in law, Rodney Qualls of Murphysboro, and James Morgan and his wife Leslie (Germann) Morgan of Murphysboro;

two daughters and two sons in law Babara (Qualls) Stephens and her husband Larry Stephens of Troy, OH, and Jane (Morgan) Moore and Russ Moore of Energy;

five grandchildren Amileth Moore Brooks, Nicholas Morgan Moore, Jessica Stephens, Danielle Morgan, and Jacob Morgan;

two great grandchildren Isaac Brooks and Abram Brooks;

two brothers Richard Kiel and his wife Glenn Ann Kiel, and Robert Kiel and his wife Helen Kiel;

one sister Wanda Applegath and her husband Fred Applegath; and one sister in law Betty Kiel.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one brother William Kiel, Jr., one sister Reba Jo (Kiel) Moniger, and one brother in law husband Jim Moniger.

Lois was a source of beauty, faith, courage, and compassion to all who knew her, and to those that didn't. She will be missed by all who knew her and we look forward to spending eternity with her in heaven.
