Lolita Joy Wright, 86, of Murphysboro, passed away Friday, February, 16, 2024 at home.

She was born June 8, 1937 in Bulpitt, Illinois to Bert and Alvah (Watts) McIntyre.

Joy and Don Wright were married December 27, 1965. They shared 57 years together. Don preceded her in death December 19, 2023.

Joy loved her family and friends. She enjoyed singing in choir and was director of choir for many years at Jubilee Tabernacle Church in De Soto, Illinois. She even sang with the choir at Billy Graham's Crusade. She loved serving God and often witnessed about Jesus.

She worked in payroll at William Heating and A/C and was a homemaker.

Survivors include her son, Jason Paul Wright of Murphysboro, Illinois; son, Danny Wright of Williford, Arkansas.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Don.

Cremation rites have been accorded.

Private burial will take place at a later date.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Crain Pleasant Grove-Murdale Funeral Home.
