Loren W. Ferguson

Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – DONGOLA

106 NW Front Street, Dongola, Illinois

Loren Wayne Ferguson, 91, of Anna, passed away on Wednesday, November 30, 2022, at his home.

He was born October 17, 1931, in Balcom, to Glenn and Mae (Carter) Ferguson.

In his youth, Loren embarked on what would be a life-long career as an over-the-road semi-truck driver and owner of his own trucking company, Ferguson Trucking. His CB handle was “Bandit”, which was inscribed on his personal semi-truck and also given to his gasoline station, “Bandit One” Shell. His loving family have fond memories of accompanying him in his semi-truck during his many travels throughout the years. He also loved spending time at home on his farm and caring for his many animals. He was a beloved husband and father who will be greatly missed.

Loren accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and was a member of the Big Creek Baptist Church. He was thankful for all of the blessings in his life and grateful the Lord protected and watched over him for all of these years.

He is survived by his wife, Pamela (Lingle) Ferguson; a son, Danny Wayne Ferguson, of Anna; three daughters, Cathy Lynn (Charlie) Mason of Murphysboro, Laurie Ann (Allen) Young of Charleston, South Carolina, and Lorna Mae Ferguson of Anna; two granddaughters, Lindsey (Aaron) Ackland of St. Louis and Jenny (Troy) Jones of Murphysboro; one grandson, Joshua Cain, of Jacksonville, Florida; and several great-grandchildren. Other survivors include a half-sister, Violet Ferguson, of Anna; sister-in-law, Pat Ferguson; brother-in-law, Roger (Rosalind) Lingle; sister-in-law, Cynthia Kern, all of Dongola; and brother-in-law, David Lingle, of Austin, Texas; along with nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Dean Ferguson; a sister and brother-in-law Glenda and Bill Hutchison; half-brothers, Rodney Ferguson and Roy Ferguson; a grandson, Michael Wayne Ferguson; a granddaughter, Amy Jo Stanton; a sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Janet and Roy Johnson; and brother-in-law, Kyle Kern.

Graveside services will be held Tuesday, December 6, 2022, at noon at the Big Creek Baptist Church Cemetery located south of Anna with Reverend LaRue Parr officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the American Heart Association or Big Creek Baptist Church Cemetery.
