“ Lynn was a special friend of mine during my Junior Year in High School. He and I dated prior to my marriage in July of 1956. He was a sweet tall blond haired boy that came to town in his beautiful white Ford Crown Victoria. He and his brother Lyman, were always together. Lynn was always a special memory of mine and I kept up with him through family back home in Anna-Jonesboro. We never contacted each other because I lived in Florida since 1962, However, recently, after all those years we did reconnect through telephone conversations. He took me through his life journey, and I took him through mine. i will always be grateful that we talked during the last part of his life. He was very proud of his wife Janelle and his boys and grandchildren. He sounded like his family brought a lot of happiness to him during his lifetime and especially his granddaughters..

He will most certainly be missed by friends and family. Rest in Peace Lynn.

Peace be with his family
