“ A couple of years ago, when I was visiting my Aunt Mildred in the assisted care facility in Murphysboro, I learned that Marge was in the same facility. My friend Jeff Wright and I "popped in" on her, totally unannounced. I hadn't seen Marge for probably at least 10 years. She knew immediately who we were, was glad to see us, and we had the most delightful 45-minute conversation, talking about everything. I'll never forget how upbeat she was and just how sharp her mind was. Jeff and I left the visit shaking our heads in amazement. She was a lovely and amazing person.
