“ *Rachel, Tim, Eunice, Esther and John,
Our sincere thoughts and heartfelt prayers are with each of you for the loss of your mother. Marlene touched many life's with her passion for writing, a gift from God that she loved to share with family and friends.
She was a very dear and thoughtful friend, I'm so very thankful and grateful for her friendship, she will always forever have a special place in my heart.
May your faith, the love of family and friends and all the many fond memories you all hold dear to your hearts of your mother be a blessing, giving each of you peace and comfort for the days ahead.
With our Love and Deepest Sympathy,
Cindy and Dan Kinkade*

“ As my three children were growing up, Marline always went out of her way to converse with them every Sunday. As a single-parent family wherein the mother was attending school full time and attending every child's activities, Pastor Friedrich always made it a point to make sure our family was flourishing. Now this family has grown into separate families but they all have such fond memories of Marline, as do I. Although momentarily sad she left this earth, knowing she is with her husband and with my loved ones is something for which to rejoice. She will always be remembered.....Cindy Stoll, Jeremy Stoll, Kimberly Stoll-French, and Joshua Stoll.
