Marlene was a dear cousin to me and my sisters. She was an amazing and loving mom who raised great kids and then took over to raise some her grand children after the death of her daughter Karen. I know this was very tough on her and Ray, but I never heard her complain. They both just accepted it and did what they had to do. She had a great sense of humor. For many years, at the Echols Family Reunion, her family was the most in attendance and she was awarded a bottle of asprin for all the headaches that come along with such large and extended families. She found the humor in it and even started telling me what kind of asprin to buy next year! RIP Cousin.
