“ My fondest memory of Mary is the little souvenirs and trinkets she would send me when she was stationed in other countries with her then husband Phil. She sent things from Japan, Guam, Germany and several states here in the U.S. I don't have alot of memories with my sister because she left home when I was 4 or 5 ( not exactly sure when) but I did love her and I will miss her but she is with God and my Mother, brother, and grandparents now. Rest in peace, my dear sister
