“ For some reason I thought of Katie & her Brother Tom today, who I knew a lifetime ago. I met them from working in the Fire Island Pines. I googled and learn of her passing. So sad to her of her passing so young. My condolences to her family & loved ones.

“ Mary Kate was "our" life's gage. Whenever Jess and I wondered how long we'd been friends for, we'd reflect back on the day that I walked onto their houseboat with Johnny, and she was changing Katie's diaper. At six weeks of age she was a beach bum! For a lifetime the boat, beach, and brothers were her best buddies. And of course her big sister Cindi. She was lucky enough to have lived a life with caring grandparents, and really cool uncles (Joey and Johnny), all from Bluepoint. More than all that, she had parents that loved her so much, so unconditionally. A stepfather, Brian, whose arms were always helpful and welcoming,.
Kate, you were loved by many, on every day day in your life.
