Serving Location:

CRAIN FUNERAL HOME – MURPHYSBORO

1421 Walnut Street, Murphysboro, Illinois

Mary Lou Maguire, 74, of Murphysboro, passed away after a short illness at St. Joseph's Hospital in Murphysboro surrounded by her family.

She was born August 10, 1949 to the late Lee Casey and Betty Jean Cagle (Casey).

She was a very caring woman who made sure those around her had whatever they needed in life.

She would have given her last dollar to someone else and never met a stranger.

In her spare time she enjoyed watching NCIS, CSI, Hallmark Channel, and playing games on her cell phone. She loved ALL things Elvis, whether it was Music, Music Videos, or some random Elvis trinket sold on the internet or Home Shopping Network.

Above all else, Mary Lou was a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She will be missed by all that knew her.

Mary Lou is survived by her son, Lee Spradling (and his wife, Linda), her daughter, Monica Spradling (Spurgeon); grandchildren, Kyle Spradling (and his wife, Britney), Casey Fedderke, Haley Simmons (and her husband, Walter), Samantha Hampton; great-grandchildren, Ryleigh, Kade, Nolan, Josie, and Wyatt; sister-in-law, Rosetta Casey; niece, Sandra Casey; and her loyal four legged companion, Chico.

In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her brother, Bob Casey, her children's father and her first husband, Toby Spradling and her second husband, Francis (Frank) Maguire.

Her children want to give special thanks to all of the neighbors of their mother and the healthcare workers who helped their mother as her health diminished.

The family wants to give a special thanks and recognition to the staff at St. Joseph Memorial Hospital in Murphysboro for the caring service they provided not just for their mother, but also the family and friends who came to show their love in her final days.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Mary Lou's life on Thursday, September, 28, 2023 at 4:00 p.m. at the Crain Funeral Home, 1421 Walnut Street, Murphysboro.

Visitation will begin on Thursday at 2:00 p.m. until service time at the funeral home.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Crain Funeral Home.
