“ So sorry to hear about Mary's passing. Met her in first grade and spent the next 12 years enjoying her personality. She was funny, mischievous, loyal and just a nice caring person. She definitely could make you laugh and cheer you up. My prayers to her family.

“ I met Mary when she applied for a job at Hillier Industries many years ago. I told the boss if he would hire her, I would feed & water her. She thought it was funny and we were instant friends. He did hire Mary and she was a great asset to the company. We were friends even after she left and saw each other on occasion. I will always remember Mary and appreciate that she was a part of my life. A great and wonderful friend!!!

“ I got to know (& love) Mary when she attended Metro Business College. No matter what was going on Mary was always positive and could turn any day into a good day. In fact she always said to me ‘IT’S A GOOD DAY TO HAVE A GOOD DAY’. Every time I see that on a sign somewhere I always smile & think of Mary ❤️

“ Mary and I met thru her going to MBC. She was a joy to be around and generally always laughing. She was forever talking about her daughter, Cassandra, and sharing memories of her. And let's not forget her cats, her beloved friends. She had a story about one of them everyday. Mary, your dancing on those streets of gold that you talked about. RIP my friend. Melissa Criddle
