Maxine was born on December 1, 1923, in Murphysboro, Illinois, to William McRoy and Cecil (Lee) McRoy.

She had started working at the former Brown Shoe Factory and then later she went to work at the Hallmark Card Shop for about eleven years.

Mrs. Daum was a member of St. Peter's United Church of Christ in Murphysboro, and she was a member of the St. Joseph Hospital Auxiliary in Murphysboro.

Maxine was a very good baker, and she was famous in Murphysboro for her chocolate chip cookies.

She married Bill Daum, who survives, on September 17, 1944, in St. Peter's Church of Christ. On Monday, they would have been married 68 years, and have been members of the church for that length of time, also.

Other survivors include one daughter and son in law Diana and Chuck Steinbach of Carbondale.

She was preceded in death by eleven brothers and sisters, and her parents.
