“ When the Lord said, "They will know you by your love", this is the kind of person he was thinking of. Like the parable of the sons being told to go work in the father's orchard, some say the will, but don't go; others just go. Maynard went and did good and honest work! He was a blessing!

May the Lord comfort all of his loved ones until the time comes when we all meet again on that beautiful shore!
