

Meyrl D. Lindsey

October 12, 1939 - December 13, 2013

Meyrl D. Lindsey, 74, of Gorham, Illinois, passed away at 12:30 a.m. Friday, December 13, 2013, at his residence in Gorham, Illinois.

Gravesite services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, December 15, 2013, at Goodbread Cemetery with Rev. Andrew Mifflin officiating. Family and friends are asked to meet at the cemetery. Memorials may be made to Goodbread Cemetery. For more information, please visit www.pettettfuneralhome.com

Meyrl was born on October 12, 1939, in Gorham, to Henry Oscar Lindsey and Hattie (Brown) Lindsey.

He had served in the U.S. Army from 1958 to 1961.

Mr. Lindsey had been a former prison guard and a Murphysboro Police officer and he had worked as a carpenter.

Meyrl married Sharazon Carver on November 4, 1961, in Granite City, Illinois, and she survives.

Other survivors include four children, Michael Lindsey, Marlene Loera and her husband Joe Loera, Eric Lindsey and his wife Rhonda Lindsey, and Kenneth Lindsey and his wife Jennifer Lindsey;

eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren;

and one brother Charles Lindsey.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers Everett and Delmar Lindsey, and three sisters Wilma Porter, Delores Hudson, and Charlene Lindsey.

Tribute Wall

“ Meyrl D. Lindsey

October 23, 2023 at 06:26 AM

“ We are sorry for your loss of a husband and father. The town also lost a good neighbor and friend. You know if you need us; we'll be there

Rebecca and David - December 28, 2013 at 05:43 PM

“ Sheri and family, You are in our thoughts and prayers. I only got to really know Meryl in the last few years but what a good man he was.

Jessica VanPelt - December 13, 2013 at 08:32 PM